

Security First Insurance values you as a customer, and we share your concerns regarding the privacy of your personal information.

Protecting your information is a top priority for us.

WHY WE COLLECT EMAILS

We collect email addresses to provide you with important information regarding your policy.

- » We'll email you helpful storm resources in the event of a major catastrophe.
- » If you file a claim, we'll provide a summary of your claim to the email address on file.
- » We provide billing reminders and updates to the email address we have on file as well.

Enroll in our paperless option

- » Our paperless option gives you access to your policy documents and updates via email.

OUR PRIVACY PRINCIPLES

- » We do not sell your information.
- » We do not share your information with nonaffiliated parties that would use your information for their own marketing purposes.
- » We have procedural, technical, and physical safeguards in place to protect your information.
- » We contractually require any person or organization providing products or services on our behalf to protect your information.
